This relates to 'Compulsion'.

> "Creation of facilities [illegible] parents to send children to school -- Ploughing and Harvest seasons to be Vacations. School to work in two shifts, morning and evening 2½ hours each (each shift to be complete by itself--Syllabus to be condensed usefully (History, Geography and Science to be combined as General Knowledge) to suit 2½ hour schools".

Sir, on 5th July 1952, I had an occasion to submit to the Hon. Chief Minister on the floor of this House that 2½ hour schopling should be introduced in the larger interest of the Nation. I would be pleased very, very ~~pleased~~ if only the opponents to this scheme just look into the merits of the scheme rather than the fact that they were not consulted. The question is, who are to be consulted? If there had been a ~~xxxxxxx~~ Statutory board of Elementary school teachers and if they had not been consulted by the Government, I would have been the first to oppose this Government for introducing the scheme without consulting the board. Consultation need not necessarily be made with politicians. Education is a matter as between the politician and the educationist. The politician, of course, has
